FORWARD

HOW REAL THE EVENTS OF SCHOOL DAYS ARE TO US NOW. EVERY SENIOR CLASS, IT SEEMS, IS FILLED WITH A DESIRE TO DO SOMETHING NEW; SOMETHING WHICH WILL GO DOWN TO POSTERITY IN THE HISTORY OF THEIR SCHOOL.

IN MAKING THIS LAST RECORD OF OUR SCHOOL DAYS, WE HAVE TRIED TO PORTRAY THE LIFE OF OUR SCHOOL IN PICTURES. JUST AS FAMILIES KEEP THEIR HISTORIES IN ALBUMS.

WE, THE SENIORS, ALL HOPE THAT THIS OBJECT OF INTENSE AND HARD WORK, WILL BE ENJOYED BY EVERYONE AND THAT THE CLASSES TO COME WILL CARRY IT ON.

FORWARD

Now that the State of New York is to be divided into three classes, it seems to me with a desire to do something new; something which will go down to posterity in the history of this school.
In making this last record of our school days, we have tried to show the life of our school in pictures, just as families keep them in albums.
In the sections, all have their own of interest and have been well received by everyone and that the classes to come will carry it on.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1942 dedicate this issue of the Beaverian to Mrs. Mary Pitcher Lewis, in appreciation of the untiring effort and unusual understanding she has shown us during our past four years. She has been an active member of the Board of Education for more than fifteen years and has generously given aid to us as we have progressed through school.

Our Junior Play, "Grandma Goes Hollywood", was a great success due to the efforts of our director, Mrs. Carnie. The cast played to a full house on April 29, 1941 at the Community Hall. Because it was such a success, we looked forward to our Senior Play.

On November 18, 1941, the Senior Play, "Bashful Mr. Bobbs", was presented at the Community Hall. The play's success was due to the competent direction of Mrs. Carnie. The town and surrounding vicinity greatly favored us by making a full house. Calvin Farney's continual out-breaks helped to set the audience in a hilarious state. In all, the play was very successful.

HISTORY

Important happenings within a country and outside a country go down in history. Thus we have a history of our country. We, the Seniors of the class of 1942, as we look back over our years of high school, find that we have made a history—not a history which will be written for a textbook, but a history which we as Seniors will always remember. As time has gone on, the past has left us a history. Many things have happened since we entered as a timid group of Freshmen students.

In 1938 a group of unfamiliar students from many different schools joined our class who had always attended Beaver Falls High School. Since our number was large, the girls and boys were put in two separate rooms. At our first class meeting we elected the following officers: President, Beverly Lehman; Vice President, Warren Manning; Secretary, Grace Mathys; Treasurer, Bernard Ritz; Class Reporter, Geraldine Bintz. Our class advisor was Mr. Hirst. During the school year our class saw the movie "The Prince and the Pauper." We wound up the events of our Freshman year with a picnic at Chases Lake. We said farewell until the following year.

When we again returned in September, 1939, some of our classmates had dropped out. We now felt we were above the Freshmen and were a part of high school. We elected our officers who were the following: President, Warren Manning; Vice President, Beverly Lehman; Treasurer, Julia D'Ambros; Secretary, Geraldine Bintz; and Reporter, Rita Farney. We chose Miss Burnett as our class advisor. We regretted when we learned Buelah Roggie had burned her hand and would not be with us for a long time. In a bus load of happy Sophomores we went to see the movie, "Drums Along the Mohawk". To wind up the events of 1939 we went on a picnic to Lake Bonaparte. We said goodbye to teachers and classmates until next September rolled along.

In 1940 the Junior Class had decreased to about half. The girls gathered in Room 22 as their home room and the boys in Room 23. We now felt we were a great part of high school. The first class meeting resulted in the following elections: President, Geraldine Bintz; Vice President, Calvin Farney; Secretary, Adin Hoch, Jr.; Treasurer, Beverly Lehman; Student Council Representative, Beverly O'Brien, and

Important progress within a country and outside a country to good in history. Then we have a history of our country. We the history of the class of 1901, as we look back over our years of high school. Then we have made a history--not a history which will be written for a textbook, but a history which we as students will write ourselves. As time goes on, the past has left us a history. Many things have happened since we entered as a high school of freshmen students.

In 1901 a group of students associated from many different schools joined our class who had not attended before this high school. Since our number was large, the girls and boys were put in two separate rooms. At the first of our meeting we elected the following officers: President, Beverly Johnson; Vice President, Warren Johnson; Secretary, Grace Smith; Treasurer, Bernard Hill;
Class Reporter, Geraldine Hill. Our class adviser was Mr. Hill.
During the school year one of our most interesting events was the Famous. We wound up the events at our freshmen year with a picnic at Orange Lake. We said farewell until the following year.

When we again returned in September, 1902, some of our classmates had dropped out. We now felt we were more the freshmen and not a part of high school. We elected our officers who were the following: President, Warren Johnson; Vice President, Beverly Johnson; Secretary, Grace Smith; Treasurer, Bernard Hill; and Reporter, Geraldine Hill. We chose Miss Johnson as our class reporter. We regretted when we learned that Miss Hill had moved her home and would not be with us for a long time. In a few days of happy experiences we went to see the river, "Where Away the River". To wind up the events of 1902 we went on a picnic to Lake Michigan. We said goodbye to teachers and classmates until next September called home.

In 1903 the Junior class had just commenced about half. The girls enrolled in June 25 as the boys now and then in June 25. We now felt we were a part of high school. The three class officers were elected in the following order: President, Geraldine Hill;
Vice President, Grace Smith; Secretary, Bernard Hill; Treasurer, Warren Johnson; and Reporter, Beverly Johnson.

1942

Reporter, Julia D'Ambros. With a unanimous vote, Mrs. Carnie became our class advisor. To start the beginning of the year, we had a Halloween party. Our Junior Play, "Grandma Goes Hollywood," presented April 29 in the Community House added quite a sum of money to our fund. Mildred Zehr, a studious member, left the class. The first part of the new year we ordered our class rings for the next coming school year. The class picnic was held at Lake Bonaparte.

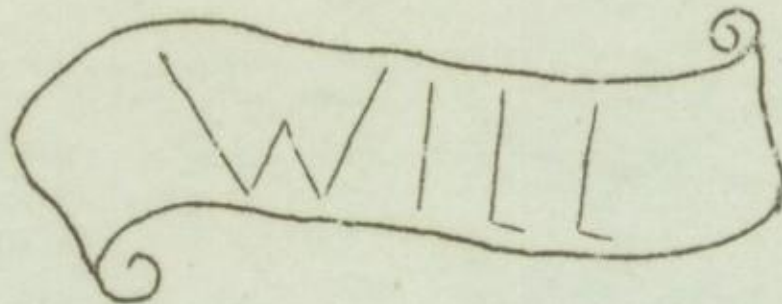

September 1941 found us as a class of twenty seven members. Warren Manning, Grace Zehr, and Nelson Baumgartner left our class. Later in the year, Viola Fate joined us again after having left during our Freshman year. We were determined to finish our studies and continue to walk in the prosperous path of our vocations. Once and for the last time our class officers were elected. They are as follows: President, Beverly Lehman; Vice-President, Adin Hoch, Jr.; Secretary, Rita Farnoy; Treasurer, Beverly O'Brien; Student Council Representative, Julia D'Ambros; Class Reporter, Janet Fredenburg. We again chose Mrs. Carnie and Mr. Campbell to direct us in those things we undertook. Our first highlight was our Senior Play, "Bashful Mr. Bobbs", presented in the Community House on November 18. It was a great success and our profits were greatly increased by selling Christmas cards and Christmas wrapping paper. For some time before March 20 the preparations were made for a U-Kux-C-Fest. The profits from the Festival added a great sum of money to our Treasury.

All these events have completed our history of the Class of 1942. Our year book is getting under way and here our history must end.

We, the class of 1942, being of sound body and of a sane mind, do hereby will and bequeath the following possessions:

To the Junior Class we leave our determination to succeed.

To the Sophomore Class we leave our dignified manner.

To the Freshman Class we leave our excess ambition to aid them in completing four years of school.

We leave to:

Leslie Genzel-Doris Meyer's quiet and peaceful nature.

Patty Kelly-Some of Virgil Busch's height to aid he in being as "high up as the rest."

Gladys Sweeney-Paul Martin's ability to shorten long English class periods by commanding the class's attention.

Elvera Miller-Janet Fredenburg's sweet alto voice to give her a chance to catch her breath after a spell of high pitched soprano.

Merial Yoder-Grace Mathys's well-played parts in the Junior and Senior Plays.

Elmer Peters-Julia D'Ambros's inexhaustible energy. She agrees it is the first step to popularity.

Helen Hofer-LaJune Lyndaker's love for shorthand.

Doris Virkler-Calvin Farney's debating ability so she, like him can give a "mouth full" of supposedly wise opinions.

Marian Honer-Some of Geraldine Bintz's versatility.

Jack Steiner-Some of Beverly O'Brien's musical talent.

Junior Graus-Eradine Bintz's dancing ability.

Kenneth Shaw-Natalie Herzig's New England experiences and her "old time" jokes.

Earl Yousey-Dorothy Sweeney's artistic ability.

Emma Bush-Shirley Yousey's calm, easy going nature concerning school.

Jack Steiner-Harlan Farney's advice. "Bashfulness sometimes is an asset, especially when you can get the leading part in a play."

Betty Spagnolli-Beulah Roggie's "afraid to say" nature.
Harold Manning-Adin Hoch's way "with the gals."
Vincent Farney-Doris Lehman's four years report cards.
John Barnes-Howard Peter's love for study accompanied with his gigles.
Junior Grau-Lawrence Lehman's advice. "It's easy to avoid lengthy explanations with a short reply, I don't know; or simpler yet, just a nod of the head."
Jean Scoville-Barbara Zehr's "everready" smiles.
Harold Manning-Elwood Lyndaker's love for agriculture.
Earl Yousey-Luella Zehr's serious school attitude and ability to get her work done.
Gladys Sweeney-Bernard Ritz's ability to get things done the shortest way--not the short-hand way.
Dorothy Jones-Lena Lyndaker's favorite habit of sitting down with a good book rather than her "good history or English."
Patty Kelly-Viola Pate's "glad to see you" trait.
Jean Scoville-Rita Farney's sense of humor.
Doris Virkler-Beverly Lehman's red hair and secretarial ability.

To the Senior Advisor of 1942: We sincerely thank Mrs. Carnie for the great patience she has shown and for her continued efforts toward making our year a success.

To Mr. Campbell, the Principal: We leave our most sincere thanks for the innumerable things he has done for our class to make this year a success.
